Today: September 13, 2009

I am so thankful today that God is a "second chance" God. I'm thankful that he didn't write me off when I rejected Him in the past.

Maybe you have rejected Him in the past to. Today, God is giving you a "second chance". What a blessing it is to know that my past doesn't have to determine my future. That my journey begins with today's step.

We ask everyone to fill out their "Communication Card" & mark the appropriate box on the front as well as any Next Step or Contact items on the back.

A few other tips to help enrich your experience:

⇒ Please turn off all cell phones during our service.

⇒ We ask all parents to take advantage of our kid's ministries & remove all crying & disruptive children from the service.

⇒ Prayer partners are available after service.

We pray that you sense the presence of God today & you have an opportunity to trust Him with your life.

Cheering You On,

Pastor Kris & Jada Young
